

Third Grade Summer Reading Bingo

B	O	O	K	S
Write and mail a letter to the author of one of your books, telling how you felt about the book and ask the author a few questions. Turn in a copy of the letter you mail.	Read parts of a summer reading book aloud to an adult and discuss parts you don't understand. Make notes about the discussion	Design a comic strip illustrating a major scene in the book.	Rewrite a summer reading book as a graphic novel.	Find a place in your fiction book where a character makes an important choice. Write about how the book would change if the character made a different choice.
Design and make a book jacket for your book.	Redesign the cover of a summer reading book.	Make a dictionary of words you were unfamiliar with from a summer reading book.	Write a review of one book. Explain your favorite and least favorite parts.	Come up with a new ending for your fiction summer reading book.
Write an advertisement for something in a summer reading book.	Write a sentence about your book starting with each letter of the alphabet.		Write a paragraph about how one of the books will affect your life.	Pretend you joined the main character of your book for a day. Write about your day.
Draw a detailed map of your book's setting. Include a map key and map date.	Write and illustrate a sequel to your book.	Watch a YouTube video about your book or the author. Take a screen shot of the video and print it.	Write a short story about characters from your book.	Make a collage about your book. Use pictures and words from a magazine or newspaper.
Make a test with 10 questions for your book and include the answers.	Research the author's career and write a paragraph about him or her.	Write an epilogue to your book, fast forwarding 5 years from the ending.	Write a poem about your book.	Draw a picture about your book and label it with details, characters, and settings.

Third Grade Summer Reading Bingo